The term "Public Speaking" is the terror-fic word for most individuals and adults. Most of us feel shy and not able to express ourselves fully to the person in front of us. For children, this is very important as they constantly need to express themselves to Teachers, Friends, Strangers, and Parents. However, since they don't express themselves fully, they are loaded with mounds of sadness, anger, stress, anxiety, and many other issues that will not allow them to have a balanced relationship with their parents and friends. The best way to outgrow this and to live a life of holistic abundance with confidence and communication is to enable them to change the essence of their personality and it is very well achieved through public speaking.

Amidst the chaos and the quarantine time, the children are confined at home repeating the same regular activities. This is the best time to discover a new skill, nurture and tone the already existing ones and move forward. Hence Story Carpet is coming with a unique and expressive workshop called "Public Speaking" that can help children to enhance and express their speaking skills.

It's a 5-week workshop that happens through Zoom ( online sessions)

On Mondays and Fridays, we have online sessions, whereas on the other days we evaluate their scripts, videos, audios and the individual evaluation is being given which will bring a huge transformation in them.

During the completion of the workshop, the children will be able to present their speech in front of the huge gathering in the online session. They can invite their friends, families, and teachers and make the session into a powerful occasion.

When: It's on Mondays and Fridays from 8 PM to 9.30 PM, IST.

It was a nice experience with Mrs. Mubeen, Story Carpet who has been instrumental in initiating this wonderful course on Public Speaking & now I am happy that I have joined the class and improved myself, Now the class is almost over and feeling for it, But I have a good news that we are going to deliver a speech before 200 Plus people ,very happy for it”

KrithikShoban,

8th grade, Ponvidyashram,

“The Story Carpet programme has been quite a journey, but sadly it is coming to an end. For me personally I am a big fan of public speaking and now thanks to this class I am a great public speaker. I have learnt about many new things like:

1. how to speak in a bold voice.
2. I have learnt about eye contact and how it boosts our confidence.
3. About impromptu speaking.
4. How to write a good script And much more

And also, normally I am the kind of person who hates homework, but for the first time in my life till now I actually love the homework given to me. I love writing scripts and stories. And I love the homework. And also the timings are very comfortable for me as normally all my tuitions end before that and also all my schoolwork is done by then. And I am incredibly sad that this journey is coming to an end”
